COMPETITORS GUIDE

1	Probably one of the most important steps - arrive on time! You need to arrive 15 minutes before your weigh-in schedule to do the check in
2	You made it to the Championship Before you head for your check-in, you should have your passport or ID and your registration confirmation (to avoid problems)
3	Find the signs that will guide you to the weigh-in desk
4	Queue patiently and when you arrive at the desk, greet the check-in clerk and hand over your registration confirmation with your passport
5	After the AJP staff have checked your documents, you will receive an accreditation badge
6	After receiving your accreditation badge, you may proceed to weigh-in
7	When you reach the weigh-in scales, follow the instructions of the staff. They will help you meet the requirements
8	You have only one chance on the official scale
9	Once you are at the WARM-UP area, there will be screens to let you know your fight time. Prior to your fight, the Bracket Manager will take you to the CONCENTRATION AREA. There may or may not be a waiting time, so when you are asked to come forward, hand over your accreditation badge, have them checked and be ready to fight
10	Once you are in the Competition Area, you can wait for the referee's instruction to enter the mats
11	Take your side, relax and enjoy the fight!
12	After you finish the fight, you should wait for your next fight in the CONCENTRATION AREA or wait to be directed to the AWARDS AREA (Podium)
13	In the PODIUM, you can wear the KIMONO only. (No Jackets, shoes, Hats, Headphones, T-shirts, Marketing Products, Sunglasses or Academies Banners are permitted)
14	Once you finish your fights or receive the awards, you are required to leave the Competition Area (including warm-up, and the concentration area) You can watch the rest of the championship from the spectators seating area.

IMPORTANT INFO

- ✓ Make sure to have a clean GI or a no GI uniform in proper condition.
- ✓ Make sure to bring a picture ID to the event, the absence of ID can lead to disqualification.
- ✓ Make sure to check the schedule on our website at ajptour.com
- ✓ The athletes must keep the kimono and belt always tied to the waist while in the waiting or competition area.
- ✓ The referee makes the final decision and will not tolerate any complaints or make changes to the decision
- ✓ The athletes are not allowed to jump over the fences/barricades in the competition area.
- ✓ Make sure to be in the warm up area at least 45 minutes prior to your bracket schedule. You should be warmed up by the time your bracket is called.
- ✓ Make sure to listen to the division calls on the PA system in the warm-up area.
- ✓ At the designated time, go to the warm up area, wearing your GI and with a picture ID and Accreditation Badge.
- ✓ In the warm-up area, pay attention to the bracket manager calls.
- ✓ After the Bracket Manager calls, he will take you to the concentration area to wait your time to fight.
- ✓ Do NOT remain in the competition area after the end of your fight. Return to the concentration area and remain there until the Bracket Manager calls you for the next round if you won your previous match.
- ✓ Be respectful to the staff, officials, other athletes and coaches. In turn, they will show you the same courtesy.
- ✓ Be respectful to the referees, showing consideration and appreciation for the performance of his or her duties.
- ✓ Any disputes regarding matches are to be settled by the Referee. All decisions made by the Referee will be final.
- ✓ Direct all questions to championship staff at the administration table. We will do our best to answer your questions as quickly as possible. Please be patient with questions as there are a lot of competitors at the event. As such we remain busy throughout the day.
- ✓ Please maintain your belonging as we cannot be responsible for lost or stolen items.

MIAMI SIGHTSEEING

HISTORY

Miami, officially the City of Miami, is the seat of Miami-Dade County, and the cultural, economic and financial center of South Florida in the United States. The city covers an area of about 56 square miles (150 km²) between the Everglades to the west and Biscayne Bay to the east. Miami is the sixth most densely populated major city in the United States with an estimated 2019 population of 467,963.

PLACES OF INTEREST

MIAMI BEACHES From world famous South Beach to hidden gem nature preserves in Key Biscayne and family-friendly swaths of sand in Surfside, it's no secret that one of the major draws of a Miami vacation is the beach.

MIAMI'S NEIGHBORHOODS Maybe it's the diverse neighborhoods that radiate with vibrant sights, sounds, and flavors. Maybe it's the breathtaking landscapes or the world-class art found not just in galleries and museums, but on our street corners. Or maybe it's the one-of-a-kind energy that you find in an international hub brimming with culture. It's this fusion that makes Miami a unique global destination.

BISCAYNE NATIONAL PARK Beyond its iconic beaches, South Florida is rife with natural beauty and contains a wealth of protected areas showcasing ecosystems not found elsewhere in the United States. Among South Florida's ecological gems, the aquatic wonderland of Biscayne National Park stands out.

WELCOME TO MIAMI!!
