CHECK IN AND ACCREDITATION

Check-in is the first process the fighters will do when they arrive at the championship, a basic summary of the identification process is below:

Passport or valid ID Verification

After finishing the CHECK IN, the fighters can proceed to the weigh in. The accreditation badge must always be worn when roaming the venue.

WEIGH-IN

WEIGH IN (without GI) is the second step that fighters will go through when they arrive at Championship.

A basic summary of the Weigh In process below:

- Athletes may only weigh up and fight if they are carrying on hands an ID (identity document) which proves their nationality and with a photograph, otherwise, the athlete will be disqualified

The official weigh in dress:

- Players must be wearing a non-transparent T-shirt and shorts covering down to their knees. Otherwise, players can weigh in wearing go pants and T-shirts or full gi uniform. Singlets, tank tops, jeans, formal wear and short shorts are not allowed.
- If athletes do not show up to the weigh-in (to check weight) they will be automatically disqualified.
- Reasonable time will be given, therefore being late will not be tolerated.
- Athletes have to attend the weigh-in in the timing given according to the event's deadline.
- Players will be placed in the next division available if they exceed the weight, they have registered in. Click here to check the divisions. Competitors over the limit 95KG (women) and 120KG (men) will be disqualified.
